SLP & Scholarships Video

Dale Weygandt filmed a video of the SLP groups that we sponsor. Nancy McNeal hosted the video and introduced the advisers. The advisers and students talked about some interesting activities they have done including: caroling on the square, hiding painted rock to add joy, sending valentines, gift wrapping, Winter Formal, collecting food, and decorating for Candlelight.

The Scholarships went to: Hanna Storm ($2,000 Brumbaugh) Emma Pinkara ($1,000 Medina High) Lillian Colbrunn ($1,000 Highland) Dan Thoryk ($1,000 Buckeye High)

Habitat for Humanity

7/9 Tom O'Connell explained the origin of Habitat, which started in 1976. Clarence Jordan and Habitat's eventual founders Millard and Linda Fuller saw a need for adequate housing. They decided to build homes with volunteers and the future home owner and have them pay a no interests mortgage for the home.

The criteria for the home include 1. Show the need 2. Put in sweat equity 3. Have the ability to pay the mortgage.

You can help as a volunteer, make a donation or just shop at the Habitat Store.

MCPAL

7/16 Terry Grice spoke to the club about MCPAL (Medina Community Police Activities League). MCPAL is a county wide program, that allows students to interact with police. The activities are to promote positive attitudes toward the Police. Some of the activities include: Crafts, sports, and even field trips.
